The Colours go right through to the back of-
Dominion Inlaid Linoleum

DOMINION Inland Linderoth will look as well you can hence as the day it was laid. The design goes right through to the very back — you cannot wear it off.

This means beautiful flowers that ALWAYS look their best — rich, colourful, harmonious. Artistic designs for every room offer wonderful decorative accents. And this lasting beauty costs surprisingly little because Duraflor® belted Linoleum is now made in Canada.

Add charm to your home with this modern face and enjoy its pleasant, work-saving features too. It is easy to clean and needs only the occasional use of a reliable face wax to keep it in perfect condition.

Other Decision Points

People who had previously driven only cars of highest price are now enthusiastic Chrysler Six owners.

People of wealth who have used chauffeurs for years have discovered new and restful exhilaration in personally driving the Chevrolet Six.

People who previously had felt themselves restricted to cars of lower first cost, now find greater economy—and vastly greater satisfaction—in Chrysler Six ownership.

Its appeal to every class of motorist is perhaps the most significant thing of all about the Chrysler Six.

More-than-abundant power and perfect balance of all units give it flashing speed for the open road, lightning-like acceleration for traffic, and economy consistent with results that set the Chrysler Six apart as the pattern of brilliant six-cylinder performance.

Fitting complements to this engineering masterpiece are the body design and coloring—the essence of the style which discriminating women and men everywhere admire as distinctively Chrysler.

The nearest Chrysler dealer is eager to demonstrate to you why the Chrysler Six has made such a profound impression among all ranks of motorists.

 Great-West
Life

Ex-Commander of a Bombing 'Plane

By G. APPLEBY TERRILL

ILLUSTRATED BY A. C. VALENTINE

von Zolner had flown Gorbis over London during the war—that is the story of a peace-time sequel to one of his air raids, a deconcentration which struck into his soul.

WHEN von Zolner was flying Gorbis over London, he was not yet thirty. His career as a bomber pilot was just beginning. He was a young man, full of life, with the kind of energy that is rare in the world of war. He was a young man, full of life, with the kind of energy that is rare in the world of war. He was a young man, full of life, with the kind of energy that is rare in the world of war.

There were moments, though, when moments of doubt came over him. He was a young man, full of life, with the kind of energy that is rare in the world of war. He was a young man, full of life, with the kind of energy that is rare in the world of war. He was a young man, full of life, with the kind of energy that is rare in the world of war.

On these nights, as alone with the dog, with the black, silent air above him, with the city lights below, he would think of the war, of the years that had passed, of the things that had happened, of the things that were to come.

It would remain in his mind, though, as it would remain in the mind of every man who had lived through the war, as it would remain in the mind of every man who had lived through the war.

von Zolner was a peaceful person in the sequel.

A scene of great simplicity came to von Zolner's mind. He was sitting at a table, with several glasses and bottles on it. The background was dark and indistinct.

News-Gathering Organizations Have Great Responsibility, but Noddy Less Up to It, Says Press Man

EDWARD MASON

FAKE News and the Public: is the title of a very amusing article in the 1958 edition of the book by Edward M. Mason, executive editor of the London Times and a member of the London Press Council. The book is a collection of news items gathered from the past year, and it is a very good one. It is a book that every newsman should read. It is a book that every newsman should read. It is a book that every newsman should read.

As an instance of the increasing pressure on news-gathering organizations for greater responsibility, it is interesting to note that the London Times has recently published a book on the subject of fake news. The book is a collection of news items gathered from the past year, and it is a very good one. It is a book that every newsman should read. It is a book that every newsman should read. Now! There's

Healthful Cleanliness

Sparkling, wholesome, sanitary—free from visible soil and stains and dangerous invisible impurities as well.

Healthful Cleanliness is exceptionally important in the bathroom. Impurities from the body removed in washing the hands, brushing the teeth and in the bath, readily cling to washstand and tub. Ordinary rinsing or wiping does not remove them but Old Dutch does—quickly and easily. You will always be sure of Healthful Cleanliness by cleaning the tub and washstand with Old Dutch Cleanser each time they are used.

Old Dutch contains no hard grit and will not scratch. This is a strong safeguard, because scratches are catch-alls for impurities, they hold dirt. A scratched surface readily becomes unhealthful, is harder to clean and the appearance is marred.

Old Dutch efficiency is due to individual and distinctive character. Its flat shaped particles are tiny erasers that erase dirt instead of scratching it off. Old Dutch Cleanser is so thorough, safe, and economical that every home should use it for Healthful Cleanliness.

There is nothing else like it
